

Contents

From the author ► 7

Part I

Getting to grips with science and scientificity

Chapter 1

What was and what is the study of religion? ► 13

Chapter 2

Confession or science – a real or ostensible dilemma? ► 29

Chapter 3

Standards of rationality in the sacred and the profane ► 55

Chapter 4

Agnostics and agnosticism. An attempt at typologization ► 79

Chapter 5

Historicist and historical religious studies ► 101

Part II

Getting to grips with transformations and innovations

Chapter 6

Religious authorities of Christianity in the process of modernisation ► 119

Chapter 7

Modern-era innovations in perceiving and presenting religion ► 135

Chapter 8

Between the temptations of privatizing and globalizing religion ► 151

Chapter 9

Radicalism in religions and narratives in the study of religion ► 163

Chapter 10

“Replacements” of traditional religions ► 177

Bibliography ■ 189